

HOUSE RULES

No physical, verbal, or sexual harassment is allowed. You will be evicted immediately, and charges will be pressed against you.

No illicit drugs and alcohol on the premises. If suspected, management will conduct room searches. If contraband is found, management will notify Law Enforcement, Social Services, and Probation Officers. You will be evicted immediately.

Prescribed medications will be locked in the office and administered by staff at the prescribed times to ensure accurate dosages and administration times.

Firearms or weapons (pocket knives included) are NOT allowed on the premises. No stealing is allowed.

Residents are allowed only in their own bedroom.

Guests are to remain in the common living areas. Visiting hours are from 9AM-9PM. Quiet time is 10:00pm.

Food and mealtimes are approximately 8:00am for breakfast; 12pm (noon) for lunch; and 5:00pm for supper. Snack time is 8:00pm daily. Note that these times may vary depending upon staff's discretion. Meals are to be eaten in the commons and not in your bedroom.

You are responsible for attending meal times without staff prompts. If you're going to be absent for a meal it is your responsibility to request that staff save a plate. The alternative meal will be peanut butter and jelly sandwiches.

Residents need to notify management if you are going to be away from the residence for more than one night. If management is aware that you have been gone for more than one night, we will notify your case manager.

Smoking is allowed outside only. Cigarette butts must be disposed of in designated spots that are located outside. Violations of this rule will be cause for eviction.

Residents are expected to bathe at least four times per week to maintain good hygiene.

Residents are expected to participate in cleaning the common living areas of the house. When tasks are assigned - you are expected to complete the task the same day that it is assigned to you. Your rooms are to be kept clean, beds made, and clothing put away.

Residents are expected to have only the amount of clothing that fits in one dresser or in half of the closet. You are responsible for your own belongings. Rivers Edge Board and Lodge is NOT responsible for anything that is lost or stolen.

Random UAs will be conducted to ensure sobriety is being maintained at Rivers Edge Board and Lodge. Failed test will result in immediate eviction.

Security cameras are located at entrances of doors to ensure safety and curfew compliance. If cameras are altered or handled in any way you will be evicted immediately and charges will be pressed against you.

If you start working or are working, you will be required to pre-pay your portion of the amount that is requested by Rivers Edge Board and Lodge. You are also expected to maintain coordination of care with your financial worker to ensure all requirements are being fulfilled. When the actual amount owed is determined by the county the following month, we will notify you of any difference that you owe.

Laundry: You will be scheduled a certain day of the week for your laundry and bedding to be completed by staff. Please have your dirty laundry by the back kitchen door on your assigned day. If you miss your day you will have to meet with staff to discuss an alternative time.

No locking of your door unless permitted by staff. Locks on doors are a privilege and must be approved by staff. Upon lock approval - staff must be provided with a key or your lock will be removed.

Residents are expected to give a 30-day written notice prior to leaving Rivers Edge Board and Lodge. Failure to do so may result in you owing Rivers Edge Board and Lodge 30-days of rent beginning from your discharge date.
